50X1-HUM

1. On 20 January 1950, a group of Soviet officers and civilians who alleged they were members of the USSR Political Representation in Vienna visited the Austrian Foreign Trade Commission, to inquire about recent Austro-Yugoslav transactions. They demanded a complete list and copies of all export permits issued by the Austrians to firms exporting goods to Yugoslavia. 50X1-HUM

2. The Soviets inquired particularly about the shipment of dynamite caps sent to Yugoslavia

Comment: It is possible that this shipment of dynamite caps is identical with the 400,000 delivered to Yugoslavia on 2 August 1949.
